We went to my new favorite restaurant, Sorrento. It was amazing!

Let me just say this: if you haven't eaten at Sorrento yet, you are missing out! This place gets five stars in my book—and that would be on a scale of one to four! Let me tell you a little bit more about my favorite place to eat... Sorrento is located on Happy Valley Road in Glasgow, next to Enterprise Rent-A-Car. >From the moment you walk in the door, you know you're getting something special. The restaurant is lavishly decorated, and it's almost impossible not to appreciate the attention to detail—even the little things, like having real silver ware or listening to a lovely aria while you enjoy your meal.

But that's not even the half of it! The food is to-die-for! It's not hyperbole when I say this is the best food I've had at a restaurant in my life. Everything is prepared fresh daily—from the pasta to the salad dressing, and even the croutons. I feel my vocabulary is a little insufficient when it comes to trying to convey to you just how good the food is here.

I am a huge "foodie," so I love being able to try different restaurants and types of cuisine. Sorrento is amazing because the food they make is something you can truly savor. You can appreciate the effort that went into crafting such delicious dishes. Taking your friends or family to Sorrento is going to be something you all won't soon forget. I could go on and on about how much I love this place, but the more I type, the hungrier I get! Check it out soon; it's amazing!
